

Attention FDA

5 6 7 8 '00 MAR 22 AM 10:37

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

The government should not tell me when and where to get a medical Exam for any purpose.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

The FDA has no right to tell me to see a hearing specialist when I alone can tell when I need aid.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

The FDA has no power to remove a constitutional right of mine.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I should have every right to purchase any type of hearing aid I choose
